

4-H/FFA JUDGING CONTESTS

SMALL ANIMAL JUDGING

Must do oral reasons or you will be disqualified

Contestants will all enter as individuals and must be prepared to judge classes on eggs, its sizes and grades; breeds of poultry, breeds of rabbits, fur animals, feed rations, body parts, carcass grades & parts, medications, feather quality, standard equipment, tanned pelts and showmanship. Be prepared to give written and/or oral reasons on one class. Anyone enrolled in 4-H/FFA may enter the County Small Animal Judging Contest. Club consists of 4 people.

761 700 001 – Junior 761 700 002 – Intermediate 761 700 003 - Senior

Premiums	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th	6th
	$6	$5	$4	$3	$2	$1

LIVESTOCK JUDGING CONTEST

4-H Livestock Judging ~ Must do oral reasons or you will be disqualified

700 900 001 - Junior
700 900 002 - Intermediate
700 900 003 - Senior

Premiums	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th	6th
	$6	$5	$4	$3	$2	$1

Contestants enter as individuals and may be asked to place classes of 4 animals each of hogs, sheep, beef, forage and/or meats and identify meat cuts or grains and give written and/or oral response on one class. Anyone enrolled in 4-H/FFA may enter the County Livestock Judging Contest. The highest scoring 4-H individuals in the intermediate and senior division will have the privilege of making up a county judging teams to State Fair provided they are enrolled in a livestock project. Club consists of 4 people.

FFA LIVESTOCK JUDGING CONTEST

The accumulative score of the 4 highest individuals from each chapter will be used to determine chapter team placing.

700 700 000 - Beginner 700 700 002 - Beginning Team
700 700 001 - Advanced 700 700 003 - Advanced Team

Premiums	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th	6th
	$6	$5	$4	$3	$2	$1

ROUND ROBIN CONTESTS

4-H / FFA GRAND CHAMPION LIVESTOCK SHOWMAN (Round Robin)

Champion and Reserve Champion beef, sheep, swine, dairy, dairy goat, and horse showmen will compete for grand champion livestock showman. See animal science policy No. 22.

Premium: Ribbon