

Proud Sponsor of the 2010 Baker County Fair Entertainment

BAKER COUNTY TALENT SHOW—WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4 5:00 PM-8:00 PM

Mark Stratton of One Man Country will be your MC and entertain you between age groups of our talent show.

Zack Freiwald: Thursday, August 5, 2:30-3:30pm- When looking for who could be the next big thing in the world of singer/songwriters, one can't overlook Zack Freiwald, a burgeoning performer of Americana/Roots music. Just like the singers of old, Freiwald performs alone on the stage, with only his guitar and voice to carry him. Zack Freiwald began his career in coffeehouses and small venues along the northern California coast.

Bitterroot-Thursday, August 5, 4:30-6:00 pm, The three piece country/folk from Portland, OR. Bitterroot, will return back to the Baker County Fair with new players and several new original songs. Since their 2009 performance at the fair, the band made of Colt Haney, Foster Haney and James Parker have been seen at locations around the State. The three piece has been consistent at providing top quality original music along with covers that have made their mark on America.

The Larry Robb Band—Thursday, August 6, 6:45-8:00 pm from Baker city is a high-energy quartet steeped in the Classic Honky-Tonk and Rockabilly tradition of the 50's and 60's—paying tribute to musical giants such as George Jones, Hank Williams, Buck Owens, Johnny Cash, Merle Haggard, Waylon Jennings, Elvis Presley and many more. Appealing to a multi-generational audience, the Larry Robb Band is versatile enough to play straight classic honky-tonk for the Texas two-steppers or rip into some serious Rockabilly scorchers.

Patrick McWeeny and George Winchester: Friday, August 6, 1-2:00pm- Local duet Patrick McWeeny and George Winchester, will provide an easy listening set for fans who enjoy clean, clear sound and quality rhythm and timing. Both musicians' alternate instruments with skill and ease. Patrick's instruments of choice include the mandolin, six string guitar and the dulcimer as well as vocals. George will add work on the keyboard, drums, harmonica and vocals. The two players have been seen locally with Baker City's band Inside/Out.

Frank Carlson: Friday, August 6, 2:30-3:30pm- Frank Carlson has just put out a new CD, titled Frank "Alone". The CD and more information about our local star is available through Marilyn's Music in Baker City, Oregon and at www.fcproductionsinc.com. Frank Carlson was the first runner up in a first ever American Co-op Idol contest that was held in New Orleans, La with and all expense paid trip by the NRECA. Frank works at OTECC as an Engineering Aid.

Catlin Martin and Luke Basil: Friday, August 6, 4:00—5:00 pm—Catlin and Luke from Pendleton, OR will be performing an acoustic guitar and vocal act. The duo has played throughout Oregon including our fair in 2009. The act also performed at the Oregon Fairs Association in Salem this January. Both Catlin and Luke are members of a four piece country band called Catlin Martin and the Common Thread. The four piece has opened for such acts as Tracy Lawrence and Aaron Tippin. The duo promises to bring top quality music to Baker. For more information see: Catlin Martin and The Common Thread www.myspace.com/catlinmartin

Mark Stratton and Lost Creek Road: Friday, August 7, 6:00-8pm- Mark Stratton and Lost Creek Road is a modern country band made up of five members who perform songs from Johnny Cash and George Strait to Jason Aldean and Keith Anderson. The band was brought together by lead singer Mark Stratton. Mark's strong vocals lead a band of local all Christian Member performers from Baker and Union Counties, starting off with a local favorite Mannie Guitterez, who is a huge mainstay rhythm and lead guitar player with backup vocals. A famous local, traveling and recording artist musician, Kevin Griffith keeping tempo, Dan the Man Belmore who has even taught countless musicians how to play guitar, and last but certainly not least is Ted McBride.