

ENTERTAINMENT

BAKER COUNTY TALENT SHOW—WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10 5:00 PM-8:00 PM

Mark Stratton of One Man Country will be your MC and entertain you between age groups of our talent show. Gift certificate prizes for first place from Marilyn's Music.

Thursday August 11th

Harts Reptile World—Thursday thru Saturday—An exciting educational exhibit that includes a variety of exotic & native reptiles. Includes educational displays, skeletons, skulls, skins & more-along with a show filled with lots of humor & audience participation.

Mudeye Puppet Company—10 AM—Our heroes Vel the Crow and Hazel Kanga-ron, set out on an exciting world tour to sing the praises of creative reuse and learn about other cultures. Their journey is full of imaginative characters, lively sing-a-longs and some interesting facts about how to make things from recycled materials, like toys! Join them in their homemade flying machine for the ultimate puppet adventure. Stick around after the show to see the puppets up close and learn how they are made. All puppets are made from recycled materials, like cardboard and bike tubes! The Mudeye Puppet Company is an educational puppetry arts organization dedicated to providing esteem-building arts workshops, reducing waste, encouraging creativity through use of reused materials and offering local communities exciting neighborhood-based puppet performances and parades.

Bitterroot—4 PM -The three piece country/folk band from Portland Oregon, Bitterroot, will return back to the Baker County Fair with several new original songs. The band has been seen at multiple locations around the State and in Idaho, Montana and Washington. They have opened for country recording artist, Chuck Wicks, and have played at regional festivals. Regardless of their travels, Bitterroot makes regular returning trips back home to Northeast Oregon to perform. The three piece has been consistent at providing top quality original music along with covers that have made their mark on America.

Inside Out - 6 PM -Local musicians, Inside Out, will be performing for the third year in a row at the Baker County Fair. The band will provide country and rock music for fans who enjoy clean, clear sound and quality rhythm and timing. The band is made of Patrick, George, Donnie and Ryan and together they are Northeast Oregon's best jam band.

Friday August 12th

Frank Carlson—4 PM - Frank Carlson is working on his fourth CD. The CD release information and updates about our local star is available on his website at fcproductionsinc.com. Notably, Frank Carlson was the first runner up in a first ever American Co-op Idol contest that was held in New Orleans, LA with an all expense paid trip by the NRECA. Frank works at OTECC as an Engineering Aid in Baker Coty Oregon.

Mark Stratton Lost Creek Road—6 PM—Mark Stratton Lost Creek Road is an all Christian six piece Country band formed in 2008. The band was brought together by lead singer Mark Stratton. Mark's strong vocals lead a band of local performers from Baker and Union Counties. Mark met many of these performers while touring the region with his one person show, One Man Country. The band Mark Stratton Lost Creek Road includes: drummer Kevin Griffith, Dan Bellmore on bass, Ted McBride on guitar and vocals, along with Manny Guitierrez on guitar and vocals and Nick Root on vocals and keyboard. Mark's group of talented musicians has over 200 years of combined musical performance experience and will perform a few original songs mixed into a set of today's modern country favorites.